MILWAUKEE:

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 22.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
JOHN P. HALE, of New-Hampshire.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
CASSIUS M. CLAY, of Kentucky.

SLAVERY TICKET—No. 1.

FOR PRESIDENT,
FRANKLIN PIERCE, of N. Hampshire.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM R. KING, of Alabama.

SLAVERY TICKET—No. 2.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WINFIELD SCOTT, of New-Jersey.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
WM. A. GRAHAM, of North Carolina.

The Candidates.

The two Slavery parties have held their Conventions, and presented their candidates to the public. Their Platforms are thoroughly Southern, servile and slavish, such as would be acceptable to John C. Calhoun—were he living—and to South Carolina. On the subject of Freedom, there is nothing to choose between the parties. As an independent Journalist, we put up the names of the different Slavery candidates, in the order in which they were nominated, and above them all, at the head of our paper, we place the names of Hale and Clay, as our first choice, for President and Vice-President.

John P. Hale is an original Democrat, who has adhered to Democratic principles, when his party forsook them and joined the crusade in behalf of Slavery. Rejected by his party for his devotion to Freedom, he appealed to the people of his own State, and they answered that appeal by electing him Speaker of the House of Representatives, and U. S. Senator for six years. During his Senatorial career, he has been true to the principles of a living Democracy, and has won for himself a national reputation for faithfulness, ability, and untiring devotion to the best interests of his country. By the testimony of his political opponents, he is one of the most personally popular members of the Senate. He has shrunk from no duty, has met the haughty and insolent champions of Slavery, with the spirit of a Freeman, and in his encounters with his opponents, he has never come off second best. Ready in debate, of keen wit, of great resources, thoroughly versed in political history, terrible in sarcasm, and withal of such a genial disposition, as to win the good will of his enemies, for nearly six years, in the American Senate, he has been the champion of Freedom and of the Rights of Man. Such a man is our first choice for the office of President of the United States.

Cassius M. Clay was born and bred a slaveholder, but in obedience to the convictions of duty, some eight years ago, he emancipated all his slaves, at a sacrifice of Thirty Thousand Dollars, and has since that time nobly vindicated the right and duty of Free Discussion and the Duty and Policy of Emancipation. He was the Emancipation candidate for Governor of Kentucky last year, and received several thousand votes in that Slave State. His name and deeds are familiar to the people of the North, and his nomination to the office of Vice-President would meet with a cordial response from the friends of Progress and Freedom throughout the Union.

We have no doubt that the Convention at Cleveland, will nominate good men and true, and we think Hale, at least, will be designated as one of the standard-bearers of the Free Democracy.

☞ Our neighbor, of the Sentinel, says of the Whig Convention Slavery Resolution:

"It is a good deal more Northern than we expected."

We don't know what the Sentinel expected, but we don't see what more the South could require of our cotemporary, except to compel him to take up the hoe and drive him out under the lash, to work in the sun, on a slave plantation. To stand as body guard and act as slave patrol, as he is now required to by this Resolution, we should think was degradation enough. However, we congratulate our neighbor on his escape from a lower deep. The Slave Power wants to save its Northern vassals for future uses.

☞ The cost of the Warehouse recently burned at Menasha, was between $1500 and $2000. Gen. Potter, of Fond du Lac, had some $2000 worth of goods stored in this warehouse; which were entirely consumed.—Total loss of property estimated at $5000. Building insured for $1000.

☞ The Potosi Republican is out against making the election of Judges a party question, and says, that the attempt will end in certain defeat. It thinks a Judge, like a minister of the Gospel, should know no party.

Parties may make Judicial nominations—we have no objections to this course—and the mere partizans will sustain such nominations, but the people will be very likely to elect the best men, without reference to party.

☞ The Oshkosh Democrat has had quite a brisk warfare with the Madison Democrat, and old associates, in which the editor's knowledge of natural history has been drawn upon, quotation wise, for comparisons. Rather spicy!

Jno. Randolph on Mr. King.—Jno. Randolph being once asked by a lady of Washington, what he thought of Mr. King, of Alabama, who was then a young man, replied:

"Mr. King? Why, madam, Mr. King is—is—in fact, madam, Mr. King wears the handsomest pair of boots in Washington."

SILENCE.

Not a word must be spoken against Slavery, said the Overseers of the first Baltimore Convention, and the assembled Representatives of the Hunker Democracy responded, we swear to be mum on that question, and to hush every Anti-Slavery voice in the Union into silence.

Taking courage from their example, the Slavery Quietists in the Whig Convention said, the Slave Compromise in general, and the Fugitive Slave Law in particular, are, like the Constitution, the cement of the Union—they are the essence of National Whiggery, their adoption is a final decree on which all discussion is dangerous, and from which no dissent shall be tolerated. And the Sentinel, like a whipped spaniel, makes haste to lick the hand of its master, and instead of replying with the spirit of a man to such insolent demands, it whines out, "Massa! you've done better'n I expected. We don't care nothin' at the North about this law, and I ain't a goin' to say any thing about it. Indeed, for a long time—(ever since I've fallen under your displeasure and felt your discipline)—I've thought there want no use in sayin' any thing contrary to your wishes."

That our readers may see the picture to the life, we re-publish the Resolution, as it finally passed the Convention, with the Sentinel's comment:

"Resolved, That the series of acts of the 31st Congress, known as the Compromise, the Fugitive Slave Law included, be acquiesced in by the Whig party of the United States, as a settlement in principle and substance of the dangerous and exciting questions which they embrace, and so far as they are concerned, we will maintain them and insist upon their enforcement, until time and expediency shall demonstrate the necessity of further legislation—to guard against the evasion of the law on the one hand, and the abuse of their power on the other, not impairing their present efficiency, and we deprecate all further agitation of the question thus settled, as DANGEROUS to our peace, and will DISCOUNTENANCE all efforts to CONTINUE or RESUME SUCH AGITATION, WHENEVER, WHEREVER or HOWEVER the attempt be made, and we will maintain this system as ESSENTIAL to the NATIONALITY of the Whig party, and the INTEGRITY of the Union."

We don't suppose that any one need be alarmed at the passage of that resolution. It is a good deal more Northern than we expected, under all the circumstances; and will stand in the way of no person who cares to do his duty. There is scarcely one true whig at the north who cares to "agitate" the vexed subject, unless "time and expediency demonstrates the necessity" of so doing, in order to "guard against the abuse" of the law mentioned. We have not for a long time thought the time propitious for any such continued agitation. When we make up our minds that the time has come for doing any good in that manner, no extra planks will stand in the way.

When we make up our mind to repent, says the sinner resolved to continue in sin, no extra temptations of the Devil, and no confirmed habits of transgression, shall prevent our becoming a good Christian.

"Abuse of the law!" Oh, ho! So then, it is the "abuse of the law," and not the law itself, which might, in some circumstances, justify agitation! Brave Advocate of Freedom! No wonder it thinks the time not propitious for such agitation. Why, friend, the law itself is a damning abuse of all right, truth, Freedom and Republicanism. Rather, it is the denial of all these. O the sorcery of party!

HARMONIOUS DEMOCRACY.—The Ratification meeting at Oshkosh broke up in a personal altercation, and the meeting adjourned while Mr. Densmore, of the Democrat, was speaking. He was interrupted frequently, and finding no other way to cut short his talk, the meeting adjourned. Mr. Densmore expressed his regrets that the Baltimore Convention had endorsed the Compromise, and asserted that it was of Whig origin. But Messrs. Crary, Eighme and others did not wish the Democratic party robbed of its paternity. And so they broke up the meeting. If Free Soilers are all kicked out of the Pierce ranks in this State, Scott will win the field.

☞ The citizens of Kenosha have decided to celebrate the Nation's Anniversary, at that city, on Saturday, the 3d of July. Orators of the day—J. W. Webster, M. Frank and H. B. Hinsdale.

MAGLILOQUENT FUSTIAN.—The Green Bay Advocate, in describing the readiness of the friends of each candidate to sacrifice their first love on the altar of their country, as illustrated by their constant fighting for five days, until they were all exhausted, and the alternative of an adjournment without a nomination, or a new candidate, was presented to them, says:

"The history of parties furnishes no example of such patriotic devotion, on the part of those representing rival interests, as was here exhibited."

We submit that the Whig Convention manifested equal patriotism, and devotion to its idols!

Gov. Seymour of Connecticut, has appointed Ex-Gov. Joseph Trumbull, of Hartford, and Hon. Ralph J. Ingersoll, of New Haven, delegates from that State to the Monumental Convention, to be held at Baltimore on the Fourth of July.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.—It is stated that Jewett, the Boston publisher of this work, (of which 140,000 copies have been printed and sold) published it upon the sole and urgent recommendation of his wife, he being quite opposed even to examining it. But he has already cleared $25,000 by the work, and will doubtless clear double that sum. Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, the author, receives fifteen cents on each copy sold.

☞ The Anniversary of American Independence will be celebrated at Rockville, Grant Co., on Friday, the 2d of July.

THE VICE PRESIDENT.—Wm. A. Graham, the Whig candidate for Vice President, is, at present, Secretary of the Navy. He is intellectually, and morally about on a par with his Hunker competitor, Wm. R. King. He has been in public life long enough to qualify himself for the post of President of the Senate. Nothing is yet known here, save that he was nominated. We shall get full news in two or three days.

RATIFICATION.—It so happened that almost immediately after the news of the nomination of Gen. Scott was received here, yesterday, a company of Military were out in full uniform, attended by a band of music playing a sonorous and inspiring martial tune. It was quickly noised about by the boys, that it was Scott demonstration—a glorification over the nomination of the old hero. Some of the old hunkers looked upon this coincidence with a crest-fallen countenance, evidently regarding it as an omen of the success of the old General. We would advise the hunkers to cheer up—not be at all disheartened, as this circumstance was merely accidental, and it isn't at all probable that Gen. Scott can possibly get more than three-fourths of the votes of the military of this city, and it may be not more than one-half.

WESTERN HOMESTEAD JOURNAL, is the title of a new monthly, published by the Western Homestead Association at 25 cents a year, and edited by Abraham G. Levy. Its oject is the settlement of a County of land in the West, by 2000 families of members of the Association exclusively.

DR. BUSHNELL ACCUSED OF HERESY.—The Fairfield West Congregational Association has reviewed the two published works of Dr. Bushnell, and declare they find in them heretical sentiments; and having in vain appealed to the Hartford Central Association, to which Dr. B., belongs, to institute ecclesiastical proceedings against him, they now ask the General Association of Connecticut, which meets at Danbury this week, to interpose its authority, and discipline him. They ask whether the Hartford Association has not violated the fundamental principle of fellowship which connects the Connecticut Congregational Churches, in refusing either to prosecute him on the charges of heresy, or to give a good and substantial reason for not doing so. Hope they will have a good time of it. Dr. Bushnell is one of the very few live ministers in the Congregational churches of Connecticut. Most of them are merely fossil remains of a past age, who would make tolerable specimens in an antiquarian's cabinet, but one of very little use to the present generation, except to remind them of a by-gone age.

Population of Dunkirk.—The result of a census recently taken of Dunkirk, gives a population of four thousand and sixteen.—Showing a ration of increase, during the last twelve months, of nearly fifty per cent. Over one hundred dwellings have been erected in the place since the 1st of March last. Total number of arrivals from April 17 to May 29; Steamers, 126; Propellers, 21; Brigs, 11; Schooners, 14.

Commonplace Women.—We know not who is the author of the following paragraph, and have forgotten where we found it; but it contains a truth which it is well to be reminded of, now and then:

"Heaven knows," says an unknown writer, "how many simple letters from simple-minded women, have been kissed, cherished, or wept over by men of far loftier intellect. Therefore it was no marvel that the childish epistle of Hope Ansted was read and re-read, with lingering eyes and throbbing heart. So it will always be to the end of time. It is a lesson worth learning those young creatures who seek to allure by their accomplishments, or to dazzle by their genius, that, though he admire, no man ever loves a woman for these things. He loves her for that which is essentially distinct from, tho' not positively compatible with them—her woman's nature and her woman's heart. That is why we so often see a man of high genius or intellectual powers pass by the De Staels and the Corinnes, to take into his bosom some wayside flower who has nothing on earth to make her worthy of him, except that she is, what so few of your 'female celebrities' are—a true woman."

The allusion to Madame De Stael reminds us of the singular feeling of admiration and aversion with which she was regarded by Byron. 'She writes octavos,' he used to say, 'and talks folios.' 'She was the most intellectual woman of them all,' and 'her company was delightful—for half an hour.'—Home Jour.

MINNESOTA ITEMS.—Two men were recently killed by lightning on Willow river.

The first seizure under the operation of the Liquor Law was made on Tuesday last. It appears that a person by the name of Getchell, lately arrived at this place with about four thousand dollars worth of liquors from Chicago, which were stored in Mr. Babcock's warehouse. These facts becoming known, a complaint was made before Justice Simmons by some of our citizens, and Getchell was arrested, tried and found guilty. He was fined $20 and costs, his liquors declared forfeited, and to stand committed till the fine was paid.

Pittsburgh, June 11.

Mail Robbers Arrested.—$60,000 found in their possession.—Three brothers, named Campbell, have been arrested by High Constable Hague, near Beatty's Station, forty miles beyond Pittsburgh, for robbing the mails, on the 6th and 9th inst., between here and Philadelphia.

About sixty thousand dollars in money and checks have been found in their possession, which is supposed to have been abstracted from the mails on those days.

One of the brothers resides in this city, another, Joseph Campbell, was a brakeman on the Central Railroad. Joseph had just been arrested for the robbery of Hamilton Beatty, when a portion of the contents of the mail was found in his pockets.

The Crops.—We are informed by gentlemen who have travelled through different parts of Brown county, that the wheat and other crops never looked better, at this season of the year, than at present. Our exchanges bring us similar accounts from almost every part of the State.—Green Bay Adv.

A Sad Tragedy—Kate Virginia Pool.

Kate Virginia Pool, who was arraigned at Amherst, N. H., a few days since on an indictment for the murder of her infant child, (by throwing it from a window of the cars,) pleaded "guilty of murder in the second degree," and as has already been stated to our readers, Judge Sawyer then sentenced her to twenty days solitary imprisonment, and confinement at hard labor in the State prison during her life. The prisoner was much moved during the arraignment and sentence. In alluding to this sad case, the Lawrence Courier remarks:

What a tale is summed up here! A virtuous and intelligent young lady of sweet and artless manners, whose only fault was that "she loved too much," reposed her whole confidence in the honor of a man whom the world calls a gentleman, and was betrayed and deserted. With her little infant as fair and as innocent as herself, she went to Manchester to seek employment and the means of support; but her story went with her, and that bitter persecution which the world mistakes for virtuous indignation seemed determined to leave her no resource but a life of infamy.

As she went from place to place, no wonder that her brain grew crazed, and that she thought by death to save her still pure daughter from the life of starvation and crime which seemed to await herself. But the mother triumphed over the stoic as soon as the deed was done; at Nashua the distracted parent gave the alarm and sent people back who found the dead infant. The forlorn mother was arraigned for murder; she scorned to shelter herself under the falsehood of "not guilty," which the law encourages in every prisoner, but freely owned her guilt and contrition, and has been after months of imprisonment sentenced to hard labor for life in the State Prison.

Thus in her youth and beauty, must she bid adieu to the world, and henceforth see nothing but her cheerless cell and unyielding task-master. Days, months and years, will slowly come and go, and the busy, happy and thoughtless world will live on as before, forgetting the very existence of the poor penitent whose heart is slowly breaking. How long shall it be before society will cease to inflict all its vengeance upon the deceived, misled and abandoned tempted, and reserve some of its frowns for the resolute and artful tempter.

A correspondent of the N. H. Statesman, who has had an interview with the unfortunate young woman above alluded to, since her incarceration in prison, thus speaks of her case:

She is a native of Glasgow, in Scotland—having no relatives in this country save an aunt, who was unable to assist her in her wretched extremity. Her downfall was effected under circumstances of atrocity that cry most loudly for vengeance on its guilty author. Her arms, neck, and person are scarred with wounds received in defending herself from her diabolical aggressor, and her ruin was only accomplished when she was drugged into insensibility? With the innocent evidence of her fall in her arms, she was excluded from the house of the only relative she had in America, and bearing it away with her, she sought, in a manufacturing city, shelter for herself and babe, while she could with the labor of her hands find honorable support.—This was anything but the course which would have been pursued by one conscious of guilt. In a city of strangers—a mother, but not a wife—what could be expected? All doors were closed against her. She could give away her child, but a mother's heart revolted against it. Product of shame though it was, and born to infamy though it might be, she clung to it as all that was dear to her in her extremity.

Finding every avenue to employment closed to her in one city, she fled to another. It was night when she left. Heart broken—only bound to life by the claims which bound her as a mother—she would, under other circumstances, have sought the welcome refuge of suicide. With these feelings called into a most harrowing exercise by the loneliness and misery of her situation—looking at the babe that slumbered on her breast with the brand of infamy born on its brow, is it a wonder that a mind thus tortured was swept beyond the bonds of consciousness? The Hindoo mother, who bursts the bonds of nature by flinging her infant to the gaping monster of the Ganges, has no such plea as lay in the heart of Virginia Pool. I leave her own lips to tell her story:

"I do not recollect anything distinctly," she says, "after I entered the cars. The lights, the crowd, and the motion of the cars, seemed to confuse me. I do not think I should have remembered, anything, if the weight of the child, which slumbered on my lap, had not reminded me of its existence and my own situation. At last a cloud seemed to thicken about me, and every thing seemed to look white, that met my eyes. The child itself seemed like a feather, and appeared to float away from me unconsciously. It did not seem to fall, but to rise, and I thought I could see it for some moments afterwards?"

Said I, "Do you think you had for your child the ordinary feelings and natural love of a mother?" She looked me full in the face, with eyes gushing with tears at the question, "Sir, I would gladly have laid down my own life for it! I could have given it away while in the full consciousness of my condition but I resolved to work myself into the grave before my child should have been separated from me. Do you think, Sir, I would part with that without which life would have been an intolerable burden?" Then she added, with deeper emotion. "Thank heaven, it was asleep the last I remember of it, and I think it never awoke to upbraid me with a single cry!"

SLOAN'S LIFE SYRUP

IS altogether superior to any Medicine heretofore discovered for the rapid cure of Colds, Coughs, Influenza, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, also for all diseases which originate from impurity of the blood, to wit: Salt Rheum, Mercurial, Syphilitic or Venereal, and Eruptive, or Diseases of the Skin, as Blotches, Pimples or Pustules, and all Itching Eruptions, Chronic Inflammation of the Liver, White Swellings, Necrosis, or Fever Sores, Rickets, Fistula, and King's Evil; in short, in every taint in the System or Blood, from whatever cause it may arise, or of however long standing, this medicine will be found far superior to any other remedy.

This SYRUP rapidly imparts Purity and Vitality to the Blood, and action to the Liver, and thereby assists nature in throwing off disease.

Notwithstanding this Syrup is a powerful Curative, and invariably creates an appetite, gives tone and energy to the nervous system, and strengthens the whole body, yet it is mild in its action, and may be safely employed in the most delicate cases. It is agreeable to the taste and stomach, and in diseases of Women and Children, One Bottle of Sloan's Life Syrup will produce more real benefit than ten times the same quantity of any other preparation offered to the public. One table spoonful of this Syrup is all that is necessary to be given at a time, whereas, nearly all other preparations are recommended to be taken in large quantities, which seldom benefit the patient, and frequently overloads the stomach and produces serious injury—consequently Sloans Life Syrup, is not only the best medicine of the kind in use, but it is decidedly the cheapest. For Man it has no equal, and is emphatically the Poor Man's Friend, and a superior Family Medicine.

TUESDAY.......................JUNE 22.

CITY MATTERS.

RETURNED.—Sheriff White and officer Shortell returned from Waupun, on Saturday night, having safely deposited the pair of criminals in the prison. They all took it composedly, save Lawson, who began raving like a maniac, pretending to be insane. He reads his bible, makes loud prayers and solemn declarations of penitence, and carries on like one "religion struck," evidently with a design to excite sympathy in his behalf.

ADVERTISERS.—R. P. Cady & Co., may be found in this Block, next door west of S. C. West, & Co. Their Salaratus is unequalled for purity.

P. Barker is at his old stand on East Water street, ready to sell to everybody for cash.

H. D. Hull, next door to Kirby's, on Wisconsin St., has opened a Book Store on the Cash Plan, and offers to sell books, stationery, music, &c., very cheap.

☞ Waugh's Great Moving Panoramic Mirror of Italy, is to be open for exhibition to-night at Gardiner's Hall. Our neighbor of the Sentinel, who has seen a part of it, speaks very highly of it.

☞ A Farm of 120 acres in Walworth County, is to be sold at auction, July 15th. See notice of Guardian's Sale.

☞ The Sentinel says the "dragon flies," which were so abundant last Saturday, were "free soil Democrats going South by way of the Lakes."

We suppose the multitude of the same creatures, which swarmed East Water street, and around the office of the Sentinel, this forenoon, were free soil Whigs, going to keep their apostate friends company. Though metamorphosed into "devil's darning needles," we don't believe they will be able to sew up the rent in the cloak of Slavery, so as to cover its nakedness.

KATE HAYES.—The celebrated "Swan of Erin," will visit this city next week. She is giving concerts in Chicago this week. Wherever she has sung, crowds have flocked to hear her.

☞ A correspondent in this morning's Sentinel enters a very bitter, though just, complaint against the hordes of dogs that "do congregate" and make the hours of night vocal with their "hideous howls." If the Common Council would pass an ordinance, requiring the decapitation of every dog found in the street after 9 o'clock at night, it would be an almost infinite blessing to those who wish to sleep.

POLICE COURT.—Michael Burke was tried yesterday, for assault and battery, found guilty, and fined $10 and costs.

Michael McCormick, for whipping his wife, fined $50 and costs, and was closeted in jail in default of the payment of the fine.

POETRY.—Read 'Songs of the Flowers.' The beautiful piece entitled 'June,' which we published last Saturday, should have been credited to Wm. H. Burleigh.

Serious Accident.—Surgical Operation.—On Monday of last week, a Mr. Hardwick, employed in the Pensukie mill, had his right hand horribly multilated by a buzz saw. He was brought to this place and on Tuesday Dr. Wm. H. Blodgett, amputated the first three fingers, and the patient is now doing well.—This is the second accident of the kind which has occurred at the same mill.—Green Bay Spectator.

☞ A man by the name of Reuben Ray, of Dubuque, came off the Ben Campbell, at this place, Saturday morning, sick unto death of cholera. He died the same day.—Prairie du Chien Courier.

☞ A German, named Francis Scheedel, was, on Thursday last, sentenced in St. Louis, to one hundred and four years! in the Missouri Penitentiary. His crimes were, first, for assault, with intent to kill—sentenced 5 years;—second, for murder in the second degree, and sentenced 99 years. He is now beyond the meridian of life, and will not probably live out one quarter of the sentence.—What a retribution!

Reading Room on a Steamboat.—The Michigan Southern Railroad Company has set an example, in establishing a reading room on its steamers, where all the latest newspapers are filed, that we hope to see followed by all other steamers on our lakes. The new steamers, Northern Indiana and Southern Michigan, on Lake Erie, have been commended to us very highly for this little piece of thoughtfulness.—Chic. Trib.

Capt. Van Allen, of the Empire State, does the same.

An Aged Lady.—The records of marriage at the City Register's Office, under date of November 14th, 1778, contains that of Mary Newhall to Ebenezer Field. The bridegroom in this case was on the point of embarking on board a privateer, and the marriage was hurried on that account. After a brief honeymoon he left, was taken prisoner, and died in prison. His widow married a second husband, a man named Pratt, who is also dead. Mrs. Pratt is now living at Chelsea, at an advanced age of nearly one hundred years, it being now three quarters of a century since the date of her first marriage.—Boston Trav.

Coming back.—A Company numbering some thirty or forty persons, who started across the plains for California, have returned to St. Louis, mostly in a destitute condition, on their way to their respective homes! Several have lost their relatives and friends by Cholera and other diseases, and one poor family—a mother and two children—are returning without the husband and father, and four or five little ones.

It is stated there are several hundred more who haveing become discouraged, will return. Chic. Jour.

Daily Paper in Philadelphia.—We are happy to learn that arrangements are in progress for the establishment of a Daily Free Soil paper in Philadelphia, under the editorial management of Dr. Elder.—Lowell American.

Another Sketch of Gen. Pierce.

The following sketch of the Baltimore candidate, was sent us by a young lady in Boston, taken from one of the Boston dailies.—We publish it, because we wish to throw all the light we can on the character of the candidates. Its candor will commend it to our readers:

"Franklin Pierce was born in Hillsborough county, New Hampshire—a county which also has the honor of being the birthplace of Hon. Daniel Webster, General Cass, John A. Dix, and other distinguished statesmen. His father served with distinction as an officer in the Revolution. Young Franklin imbibed his Democratic predilection with his mother's milk, and his first lesson in politics, received from his sire, was hatred of the Federalists. Age, however, has brought with it a due share of wisdom, and although Gen. Pierce still persists in identifying the Whigs with the old Federalists, he has learned some degree of toleration. Gen. Pierce was educated to the bar, of which he soon became a very promising member. He was elected in early life to the New Hampshire Legislature, of one branch of which he was Speaker before he was thirty years of age. In 1833, we believe, he was elected to the lower House of Congress, where he served two terms. He was then chosen to the Senate, and held a seat in that body till 1842, when he resigned. He did not make his mark in Congress, however, but was regarded as one of the lesser lights of the Democratic party. Since his retirement from Congress, his name has been forgotten by the Democracy of the country, although he has taken an active part in the politics of his native State. Of late years he has been the ruling spirit of the Concord regency, which sways the destinies of New Hampshire, and rules the State with an iron sceptre. It was mainly through his influence that Atwood was thrown overboard by the Democrats last year, when he would no longer be governed by the regency.

On the breaking out of the Mexican war, he received a Brigadier General's commission, and was with Genrral Scott in a part of the campaign of the Valley of Mexico. We doubt, however, whether the glory he acquired in Mexico is of that tangible character which can be manufactured into political capital. If the Democracy are wise, they will not make his military services a prominent rallying cry in his favor.

As a politician, Gen. Pierce possesses great ability. He is a shrewd party manager, and recognizes the importance of rewarding friends and punishing enemies. He possesses, however, none of the requisites of a statesman. If he should chance to be elected to the Presidency, he would do the honors of the White House with great success, but he would not stamp his administration with that dignity and strength which would command for the government the respect of foreign nations.

Personally, Gen. Pierce is popular with all who know him. He is a genial companion, and possesses warm feelings. He is a bon vivant at home, and a 'clever fellow' abroad. He is yet comparatively a young man, being, we believe, but forty-six years of age.

Such is Franklin Pierce of New Hampshire. The Democracy might have done much worse than to select him for their candidate. If in making their nomination, they had had the interests of the country at heart instead of the good of the party, they would have done better. We have no idea that the Democracy will triumph in the coming campaign, but if we are to have a Democratic President give us General Pierce in preference to a Hunker, a Butler, a Pillow, or any of the other second and third rate men of the party."

THE OLD TRAP.—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, who bids fair to become as famous for his wit as for his eloquence, makes the following shrewd reply to those disinterested people who ask temperance men why they don't enforce the old laws against rum selling, instead of framing new ones, like that of Maine. The readers can judge whether he drives the nail home and clinches it:

"It is said why don't you execute the present laws? This puts me in mind of an old rat, who, sleek and fat, comes out of his hole, sees a new trap. He walks around it; peeps into it, nibbles at it, and finds that it is not like the old one—it is all wire, and there is no getting out of it. So he goes to the keeper of the house and says: 'Why are you not satisfied with the old trap with the wooden bottom, through which I have crawled forty times?'

So with them old liquor rats, they know how to evade them, they can crawl almost through anything, but they don't like the Maine Law. These men can tell what it means. The outcry that they now make, leads me to think that they smell fire. I never was so much in favor of the law as when I found out how the rumsellers opposed it."

ARTESIAN WELL.—There is an Artesian well at a cotton factory in Dallas county, Alabama, which is 710 feet 10 inches in depth, and which discharges 600 gallons of water per minute, or 864,000 gallons in twenty-four hours—exceeding any well in America. The water flows out with such force that if pieces of stone as large as an egg or a half dollar, are thrown in, they are immediately ejected. The sand, gravel, &c., made by the auger are forced out by water, which is perfectly clear, limpid, and pleasant to the taste. The diameter is a little over six inches.

Spurious Relics.—Several communications to our literary journals, particularly to 'Notes and Queries,' have proved how little reliance is to be placed upon the traditions repeated by vergers and guides to wandering lionzers. Archæologists seem to show that there is not only nothing new under the sun, but that there is nothing also true under the sun. At Warwick Castle the rib of the dun cow is ascertained to be a bone of a fossil elephant, and Guy's porridge-pot a military cooking utensil of the time of Charles I. St. Crispin's chair, carefully preserved in Linlithgow Cathedral by insertion in the wall, is of mahogany—an American wood! The chair of Charles I, at Leicester, bears a crown, which, having been the fashionable ornament after the Restoration, together with the form, betrays the date. Queen Eleanor's crosses, it now appears, were not built by her affectionate husband, but by her own direction and with her own money. The curious bed treasured up near Leicester as that occupied by Richard III, immediately before the battle of Bosworth, is in the style commonly called Elizabethan. Queen Mary's bed at Holyrood is of the last century; and her room at Hardwicke is in a house which was not erected till after her death.

Dr. Stone, of Worcester, Massachusetts, was indicted for the seduction of one of his patients, Mary Damon, and placed under $1000 bail—failed to appear to answer to the charge at the last term of the court for that county.

The Lover's Wish.

O, had I but the genii's power,
I'll tell you what I'd do:
A little, modest, tempting flower
I'd turn myself into;
Then I'd grow down in yonder isle,
Where Mary would come and pick me,
At first she'd look on me, then smile,
And in her bosom stick me! JEEMS.

For several weeks past a challenge has appeared in Bell's Life, "none accepting it," to the effect that a member of one of the leading Clubs in London will back "a young lady" for from £2,000 to £5,000, to ride with any other young lady in England, either on turnpike-road, against time, on a course, or after the hounds.

Letters.—The Lawrence Courier says:—"We are sometimes asked as to the relative frequency of various letters of the English language. Printers' cases are made up as follows: For every 100 of the letter q, there are 200 of x, 400 of k, 800 of b, 1,500 of c, 4000 each of i, n, o, and s, 4,250 of a, 4,508 of t, and 6,000 e."

J. P. Whipple and W. B. Jones, of Boston, have discovered a process by which the most perfect and beautiful daguerreotype pictures can be taken on paper. The pictures are first taken on glass and then transferred to paper. The number of copies on paper can be multiplied to any desired extent. This is truly a great discovery.

Three or four men have been arrested in West Rutland, Vt., and vicinity, charged with being concerned in the manufacture and circulation of bogus coin and counterfeit money, and lodged in jail in Rutland.

ANTS.—When you find ants in quantities near home, pour hot water on them. The farmer, when he manures his land, if he uses ashes, lime, salt or sand, will not be troubled with these insects. Dr. Rees' Cyclopedia recommends boiling rain water, with black soap and sulphur, and saturating the ground with it, which is infested with these insects.

This valuable work, has just arrived at

C. OTT'S BOOKSTORE.

It is the work of the age. From a large number of liberal and highly complimentary notices of this work, from the religious and secular press, we only select the following:

"This admirable work is at length before us, and we hasten to inform our readers of the valuable addition, which has thus been made to the Literature of our country. The work is by far the most important of its kind, ever published in this country. It is in fact a complete library in itself, condensed and so arranged as to bring the whole question within the grasp of the humblest reader. It appears most appropriately at the present time, and will, no doubt, prove an instrument of great efficacy in the work of diffusing sound doctrines on the matters of which it treats."—Truth Teller. april 22

STOVE DEPOT!

Nos. 87, 89 and 91, East Water street, MILWAUKEE.

THE subscribers having been appointed agents of the PRESQUE ISLE IRON FOUNDRY, (the largest Stove manufactory in the United States,) are prepared to offer to the trade, and to retail customers and at LOWER PRICES, than can be bought at any place west of Albany:

A better article of Stoves

From an experience of ten years in the Stove business in Milwaukee, we have learned what kinds are best adapted to the wants of this country, and I ave no hesitation in saying, that in point of style, utility and durability, the excel all others brought to this market. The designs and patterns are neat and tasteful, and being run from the blast, are not as liable to crack as those run from the pig, for the reason that the latter receives one more melting than the former.

Among our Cooking Stoves may be found the LION and PRIZE, two Stoves that stand without a rival among the "Air Tights." The Lion is a diving three flue stove, with two tops, one for barrel or five pail kettles, and the other for boilers, tea-kettles, pots, &c; also, the KEYSTONE and CHAUTAUQUE FARMER, with elevated ovens. The Keystone is regarded by all who have seen it as the finest specimen of a cooking stove ever presented to the public, and the fact is attested by the large number sold.

The Chautauque Farmer, was designed expressly for the farmers' use, it having no inside or division plates, making the fire-place large and not liable to burn out.

Of the above mentioned Stoves we might give over 500 certificates, proving their good qualities, from persons who have used them; but as we guarantee them to be the best in use, we do not deem it necessary. We have also every variety of

Premium and Double-Oven Cooking,

From No 1 to 6; also a great variety of

of splendid patterns, with and without folding doors, together with an endless variety of

all of which we respectfully request you to call and examine before purchasing.
